

ALL EIGHTS is professional and reliable distributor of quality clinical diagnostic reagents and analyzers with a commitment to provide excellent customer services. As a growing company, we require talented, committed & industrious personnel to join the vocation of:

Technical Application Specialist/s

Responsibilities:

- To provide training and technical application services to All Eights customers as part of our commitment for service.
- Duties include product demonstrations, product installations, training to customers , technical troubleshooting, in-house training , and related post-sales support.

Requirements:

- Candidates must possess a Degree in Science, Biotechnology or Biomedical Laboratory Science with a focus on haematology, chemistry or immunology.
- Preferably with some laboratory experiences. However, training will be provided.
- Must be willing to travel regularly within Malaysia to visit customers and Overseas for training.
- Candidates should possess initiative, work independently and troubleshoot effectively.
- Must possess own transport.
- Remuneration commensurate with experience and can be discussed depending on qualifications and experiences.