

ALL EIGHTS is professional and reliable distributor of quality clinical diagnostic reagents and analyzers with a commitment to provide excellent customer services. As a growing company, we require talented, committed & industrious personnel to join the vocation of:

Service Engineer/s

Responsibilities:

- To monitor and conduct planned preventive maintenance service for Clinical Laboratory Analyzers at customers' sites to minimize down time.
- To troubleshoot & repair faulty analyzers at customer sites.
- To provide technical support to All Eights sales team for their sales activities such as installation, demonstration, evaluation and technical training.
- To coordinate technical information and support between instrument manufacturers and users.

Requirements:

- Candidate must possess at least a Degree in Biomedical Engineering or similar qualifications.
- Candidates with some related working experience in a similar field is an advantage.
- Candidates must be willing to travel regularly within Malaysia and overseas for training.
- Candidates should possess initiative, work independently and troubleshoot effectively.
- Must possess own transport.
- Remuneration commensurate with experience and can be discussed depending on qualifications and experiences.